

LINCOLN, THE STOREKEEPER, 1833

LINCOLN DIORAMA

● Lincoln lived in New Salem, Illinois, from the summer of 1831 until 1837. During this period he was store clerk, captain in the Black Hawk War, surveyor, postmaster, law student and member of the State Legislature. Here in the spring of 1833, he waited on trade in the Lincoln-Berry Store. His customer in this scene is Ann Rutledge, who is said to have been his first sweetheart.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. PHOTO-COTE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE